The Review of Maritime Transport is an UNCTAD flagship publication, published annually since 1968. It reports on the worldwide evolution of shipping, ports and multimodal transport related to liquid bulk, dry bulk and container traffic.

About 80 per cent of international trade in goods is carried by sea, and the percentage is even higher for most developing countries. The Review of Maritime Transport provides an analysis of structural and cyclical changes affecting seaborne trade, ports and shipping, as well as an extensive collection of statistical information on the following topics:

- Seaborne trade
- Fleet ownership and registration
- Liner shipping connectivity
- Shipbuilding and demolitions
- Freight rates
- Port traffic

The Review of Maritime Transport 2013 covers developments in maritime and other modes of transport from January 2012 to mid 2013 and provides updates on existing statistical data.

The highlights of the Review of Maritime Transport 2013 include:

1. Developments in international seaborne trade
2. Structure, ownership and registration of the world fleet
3. Freight rates and maritime transport costs
4. Port developments
5. Legal issues and regulatory developments
6. Securing reliable access to maritime transport for landlocked countries
